FromCounsel. The best-in-class corporate law resource.

By blending the collective expertise of barristers from Erskine Chambers and FC's expert knowledge lawyers, FC Corporate Knowledge delivers an innovative and market-leading approach to the corporate law market. FC Corporate Knowledge is designed for corporate practitioners in private practice, in-house legal and company secretarial teams, and caters for all levels: from trainees through to partners and professional support lawyers. Delivered via a bespoke digital platform, FromCounsel provides broad and authoritative legal commentary presented in its unique question and answer format.

FC's Q&A and integrated legislation are maintained daily. Practical search and navigation tools, and our unique 'milk bottle' filter allows practitioners to quickly find and select the depth of answer required: from 'skimmed' for a brief introduction, through to 'full-fat' for a detailed explanation. Trusted 'editors' views' bring together the expertise and insights of our barristers to shine clarity on the 'grey areas' not usually covered by traditional resources.

Our daily news team is constantly horizon-scanning to ensure practitioners remain on top of key developments, including practical insights from leading counsel on the latest case law.

An extensive bank of precedent documents enables lawyers to carry out all corporate matters from process-driven actions to complex and detailed transactions, safe in the knowledge that they are using best-in-class, maintained precedents from FC's expert team.

FC Markets reports on public company transactions and offers expert insights on noteworthy deals. Easy to use filtering and comparison functions mean that teams can quickly access the deal information and documents they need.

FC's unrivalled Corporate Knowledge service provides practitioners with everything they need in one place to enable them to advise clients with confidence.

Why FromCounsel?

FC Corporate Knowledge was launched in 2017 and is used by over 150 firms: including 90% of the leading 100 UK corporate law firms. Subscribers range from all the Magic Circle, the legal arms of the Big 4 accountants to regional law firms and in-house legal departments. Mandated as the primary legal research tool for fee earners within many customer firms, the in-depth Q&A and “editors’ views” are regarded as the gold standard amongst subscribers.

Why Erskine?

Erskine Chambers is highly reputed for its expertise in all aspects of company law, corporate governance and corporate disputes. As the go-to set in corporate law, Erskine helps shape corporate practice with its unrivalled strength and depth in corporate law and commercial acumen. The top ranked set in Chambers and Partners for many years, it is reported as being “.... the foremost company set in London” and “....the first port of call for any complex company law matter”.
